IMPORTANT INFORMATION <sup>(1)</sup>

AN INDEPENDENT TRIBUNAL

The Tribunal administratif du Québec is the tribunal that has been designated to hear and render decisions with respect to the proceedings an individual exercises against a decision made by certain government departments or public organizations in social, economic and real estate matters as well as those that concern the territory and the environment.

DECISIONS THAT CAN BE CONTESTED AND DEADLINES

More than one hundred types of decisions can be contested before the Tribunal administratif du Québec. When you receive a decision from a government department or public organization, it will indicate whether you can appeal it before the Tribunal and will generally indicate the time available to you. If this information is not provided, do not wait to ask the government department or public organization in question to provide it or contact the Tribunal Secretariat at the coordinates indicated at the bottom of this page.

As a general rule, the following deadlines apply:

- You have 60 days to institute proceedings before the Social Affairs Section.
- You have 30 days if your proceedings concerns another section (Real Estate Section, Economic Affairs Section, and Territory and Environment Section).
- In matters of compensation and benefits, if the government department or public organization does not render a decision following your request for a review within the time frame provided (generally 90 days), you can petition the Tribunal for proceedings after that time has expired.

Make sure you are clearly informed about the possibility of petitioning the Tribunal administratif du Québec for proceedings and the deadlines to be respected.

LAWYER OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE (section 1)

In this part of section 1, identify the lawyer who will represent you before the Tribunal, if you have one. He may sign the form in your place (section 4).

In matters of rescuers and crime victim's compensation, a person other than a lawyer may represent you, as long as that person has not been declared ineligible, stricken or suspended from a professional order. In matters of immigration, a person other than a lawyer (a relative or a non-profit organization devoted to the defense or interests of immigrants) may, exceptionally, represent you if you are unable to be present given the fact that you are not in Québec. This representative must be mandated in writing and may sign the form in your place (section 4).

FEE PAYMENT METHOD (section 6)

Certain types of proceedings incur fees that must be paid when the motion is filed. For information about the proceedings when fees are required and the amount of such fees, contact the Tribunal Secretariat or consult our Internet site under Filing a proceeding/How to file a proceeding. Please note that there are no fees for proceedings that come under the jurisdiction of the Social Affairs Section (ex: automobile insurance, income security).

Payment in cash or by debit card is accepted when you go to the Tribunal Secretariat or the registry of the Small Claims Division at a court. Do not send cash by mail.

HOW TO FILE A MOTION

You should:

- Submit a written motion to the Tribunal administratif du Québec. We suggest that you use this form. Otherwise, make sure that your written motion contains all of the information required. In matters of municipal taxation, a separate motion must be completed for each evaluation unit or each business. Keep a copy of each document submitted.
- Along with the original, enclose your payment for the fees, if any, or provide the information requested to make your payment by credit card. Only Mastercard and Visa credit cards are accepted (section 6, box E).
- Attach the document indicated in section 2.
- Submit your motion to the Tribunal Secretariat or the registry of the Small Claims Division of a court. You can also submit your motion by mail or by fax to one of the addresses indicated below. If you submit your form by fax and fees are required, you must pay them by credit card and complete box E of section 6.

If you submit your motion by mail, be aware that it is presumed to be filed at the Tribunal on the day indicated on the postal stamp.

If you feel that you have a handicap that limits your access to the Tribunal's hearings and conciliation sessions, contact one of the offices below as soon as possible to notify us.
